

XL350 Honda bikes and parts \"SELLOUT\"

Posted by R.Long14 - 2009/10/24 06:35

Bike 1 is the #15

This bike is new from the ground up. Complete Pat Orman bike. Champion frame that has been sand blasted and painted. All busings and bearings have been replaced. The motor has been completely rebuilt from the ground up by Pat. Its a 442 side port big bore that has an Edco head and Webster gears. New rod, bearings, seals piston and rings, new valves, rockers, guides, and new Orman CDI unit. It has a 38 mikuni with a Jemco pipe and megacycle cam. The Champion tank has been coated with Caswell. The tail section and tank have been custom painted.

On the front end are 35mm Betors with brand new Weiss triple clamps, with Afam bars. The rear shocks are Works Performance. It also comes with a new "Tell Tale Tach."

The wheels have had new bearings installed with a brand new brake rotor and pads. Brakes are Grimecas, tires are Maxis with 3 races on them. It has 3 heating cycles on it and is NOT broken in yet. 1st gear has been removed.

This bike was completely assembled and built by Pat Orman. I have $10,000 invested in this bike. Im asking $7000

Bike 2 is #14

This is a 442 side port big bore that is completely new from the ground up. Engine has a ported head with a new megacycle roller bearing cam. It has a new rod, bearings, seals, piston and rings, cylinder, rockers, valves, guides, cam chain, tensioner. It comes with a 38 Mikuni and brand New Jemco pipe plus a new Orman CDI ignition.

It has a new tail section and the tank and tail have a fresh paint job. The frame is an Astro that handles great. It has brand new Works Performance shocks, grimeca brakes, betor forks, Weiss 35mm tripl clamps and new Vortex bars.

The bike is completely fresh and race ready, it has been started but is not broken in yet. 1st gear has been removed. I have $7000 invested in this one and Im asking $5000.
